Rev. Hailey Likely Will Accept Dallas Call.

Rev. O. L. Hailey was seen by the Editor in Abilene Monday and sent his best regards to his many friends in Comanche.

Rev. Hailey recently resigned his position as President of the Plainview College and will likely accept a call as a pastor in Dallas.

Veterinarians to Meet.

The Veterinary Surgeon's Association of Texas, with Dr. T. M. Rutherford of Comanche as president, will meet in Abilene, Texas, Aug. 2 and 3, 1916. The programs have already been sent out. Dr. Rutherford will discuss the subject of "Serum and Bacterine Therapy."

Judge Swayne Gets His Dates Mixed.

Judge Jas. W. Swayne, candidate for Congress against Oscar Callaway, was here Tuesday en route to Gustine, Texas, where he thought that he was on the program to deliver an address, but upon investigation he found that he had gotten his dates mixed, as the date for Gustine is July 6th instead of June 6th.

EDITOR OF FT. WORTH RECORD FOR CONGRESS

Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald, veteran Texas newspaper reporter and political writer, entered the race for congressman-at-large from Texas, subject to the action of the Democratic July primaries, Monday evening. His name as a candidate before the primaries was filed with Paul Waples, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, late Monday.

Mr. Fitzgerald has for twenty-six years been actively identified with Texas newspapers. Formerly he was managing editor of the Dallas Morning News and for eight years was editor of the Dallas Times-Herald. He is editor of the Fort Worth Record.

As staff correspondent for Texas newspapers he has "covered" every session of the state legislature since coming to Texas.

Born in South Carolina of Irish parentage, Mr. Fitzgerald has been a life-long Democrat. He began his political life in Texas as a fighter for James Stephen Hogg and his policies and has ever been the champion of the rights of the farmers and the laboring people of the Southwest.

In his newspaper career Mr. Fitzgerald has vigorously sought to advance the development of the natural resources of Texas and stands for business efficiency in political administrations.

Baptist News Notes.

It was a real joy to the pastor to be in his pulpit again last Sunday after an absence of two Sundays. At the morning hour he discussed the workings of the Southern Baptist Convention at Asheville. At the evening service he told of his travels through the mountains in the East and of his visit to the old home in West Tennessee where he preached a number of times and had the happy privilege of leading two sinners to accept Christ as Savior.

All arrangements were made for a social and business meeting of our men at the Pastorium Tuesday evening. It rained.

Sister Turner who has been in the Baptist Sanitarium is improving rapidly and she purposes to return home Sunday.

Bro. McBrayer who is in the Sanitarium at Temple is reported to be getting along poorly and he may have to remain there for two or three weeks longer. He asks all of his friends to pray for his speedy recovery from a severe operation.

We call for all of our singers to meet at the church tonight (Friday) at 8:30 o'clock for choir rehearsal.

We should make next Sunday a mountain peak day in all the services in our church. We can only do it by every Baptist in the community doing his duty. Let us begin with a great Sunday school and follow with the deeply spiritual services throughout the day.

The subject for the morning sermon is, "Comradeship;" at 8:30 p. m., "The New Song."

We invite you to worship with us.

Geo. A. Curlee, Pastor.

To the Voters of Comanche Co.:

I take this method of letting you know why I am not making a more thorough canvass of the county in my race for County Clerk. My crop demands my time and labor for some time, if I save my grain, and if I fail to see you it is for lack of time and not for lack of interest. Very respectfully,

Vollie L. Jackson.

COMANCHE COUNTY NORMAL

The enrollment of the Comanche County Summer Normal has increased from 100 the first day to 135 up to Thursday morning of the second week. This is a record-breaker for Comanche county, and from all accounts is the largest single county normal in the state. This is evidence of the fact that Comanche's educational advantages are second to none, and the faculty as good as there is anywhere in the state. Teachers and prospective teachers are learning more and more each year, that they can get just as good advantages in their own "home towns" as they can by "going away" to school. Application is what counts.

CHANGE IN BUSINESS

Clyde C. Kirk, proprietor of the Sanitary Grocery on the south side of the square, has sold a one-half interest of his grocery business to Mr. T. L. Hutchison, Jr. The deal was closed last Monday and Mr. Hutchison taking hold Tuesday morning.

Mr. Hutchison is the son of Capt. T. L. Hutchison and was raised in this city and is well and favorably known to every one. For the past few years he has been engaged in farming northeast of Comanche, about three miles. The Chief-Exponent welcomes Mr. Hutchison into the business fraternity of Comanche, and predicts for him and his partner, Mr. Kirk, a successful business career.

Lamkin W. O. W. Picnic.

Lamkin Camp No. 620, W. O. W. will give a picnic near Lamkin, Saturday, June 24th, 1916. Everybody invited to attend. All Woodmen especially. Congressman Callaway has been invited to attend and will deliver an address on Woodcraft.

Attention Farmers.

This is to urge you to begin now saving your exhibits of orchard, field and livestock products for the Free Fall Fair, which is to be held in Comanche early this fall. Let every farmer save up and place on exhibition some one or more products and help make this fair a complete success.

Just a Calf.

Ollie Allen last week shipped a three months old calf which brought on the market $20 and a few cents. It is supposed that the calf could have cost but very little. The home raising of good cattle is one of the coming industries of the county. This is but one example but is an exceptional calf.

Poole-Cooper.

Last Friday, June 5th, Miss Eugenia Cooper of this city was quietly married to Mr. M. V. Poole of Quanah, at the home of Rev. Alsop in Fort Worth.

Miss Cooper is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cooper of this city. She was reared at Lamkin, Texas, getting her high school education in Comanche high school, graduating in 1913. Invincible Flour, extra high patent, $3.15 per hundred. C. F. WILLIAMS.

THE EDITOR GOES TO EL PASO

W. H. Carpenter, accompanied by Mark Callaway, left last Sunday for El Paso, Texas, to attend the annual meeting of the Texas Press Association which convened in that city Tuesday, June 6th, for a three days' session. They went from here to Fort Worth where they joined the editor's special train which left that city at 9:30 o'clock Monday over the Texas & Pacific Ry.

Before leaving the Panther City the entire party of more than 200 were entertained at breakfast by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce at the Metropolitan Hotel. After leaving the city they made their first stop at Abilene, where they spent an hour viewing the many features of that progressive city. Their next stop was made at Sweetwater, where they were served refreshments under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, by 12 beautiful young maidens, all of whom were born and reared in that progressive western city, which is destined some day to become the railroad center of the west. Leaving here no more stops were scheduled until they reached the Gate City early Monday morning.

Further than this we cannot say what has or will happen to this bunch of pencil pushers, so we will leave this for the editor to tell when he returns.

This meeting may mean the last of Villa, who has caused our Uncle Sam so much trouble here of late. Now, if Villa is really in Mexico, it is very probable that some one of our brave newspaper writers will rush across the Rio Grande and stab him to death with a pencil; however, we are inclined to believe that the bandit is not in Mexico, as nobody has seen him since the Columbus raid.

Now, the people of El Paso are great when it comes to entertaining and pastmasters in the art of pulling off unexpected stunts, and it is our opinion that they have Villa tied out behind a cactus, and will execute him during the meeting of the association for the entertainment of the editors, or else compel him to enter the arena and sacrifice himself to the mad rages of some burley Mexican bull.

Mrs. Mary Ann Cantwell.

Died at her home in Thurber, Texas, Saturday morning, June 3, 1916, Mrs. Mary Ann Cantwell, aged 58 years. Mrs. Cantwell, formerly Mary A. McAfee, lived in Comanche when a girl; coming here with her parents forty years ago from Kansas, and staying some five years. She was married here to Jim Cantwell, afterwards living many years in Dublin, but for the past several years making her home at Thurber. Many of the old timers here remember her as a young woman and learn with regret of her passing. She was a sister of the late Mrs. John Sullivan of this place. She leaves seven children, five boys and two girls, and one brother, John McAfee of Dublin, and one sister, Mrs. C. S. Gates of Dublin to mourn her loss.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Catholic church, of which she had been a life-long and devout member. We extend sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

The Central West Texas Summer Normal opened this week at Brownwood with an enrollment of 100 students. Dr. R. A. Law of the University of Texas, is Conductor, and Superintendent W. J. Gayden of Santa Anna public schools is Secretary.

FAVORITE SONS

Ten little favorite sons standing all in line;
One talked a lot too much, then there were nine.

Nine little favorite sons wished to serve the state;
One didn't say enough, then there were eight.

Eight little favorite sons thought the job heaven;
One sprouted wings too quick, then there were seven.

Seven little favorite sons, up to all the tricks;
One showed the cloven hoof, then there were six.

Six little favorite sons, very much alive;
One felt too proud to run, then there were five.

Five little favorite sons waiting at the door;
One launched his boom too soon, then there were four.

Four little favorite sons, certain as could be;
One launched his boom too late, then there were three.

Three little favorite sons filling up the view;
One couldn't hear the ground, then there were two.

Two little favorite sons, anxious both to run;
One's issues all were swiped, then there were one.

One little favorite son, positive he won;
The second ballot came along, then there were none.

THE FAMILY

There's a girlie upstairs in her bed so deep—

Hark to the wind a croon!

She's wrapped in a silver web of sleep,

Snug in her dream cocoon:

She hears the birds and crickets call,

She stirs and smiles and loves them all,

But somewhat less than she loves her doll—

High-o for the little maid!

There's a laddie asleep in the house tonight—

Hark to the sound of wings!

His slumbers are filled with a soft delight

And strange, ecstatic things:

He dreams of brave knights on a sunlit plain,

Of fairy queens that soothly reign,

That wave their wands to banish pain—

High-o for the sylvan glade!

There's a mother of both. Hark! she gently sighs,

Kneeling beside them there.

The long day ended, 'neath starlit skies

She offers a broken prayer:

But out on the field where the wild blades

leap,

Where the shrapnel bursts and the bayonets sweep,

One lies quite still where a trench yawns deep

And the toll of Mars is paid!

H. Stanley Haskins.

MY NEIGHBOR'S A GREAT HAND TO READ

My neighbor's quite a hand to read; he says he learns to sow his seed and plant his corn the modern way, and feed his pigs right every day. He spends his hard-earned money, too, whenever time comes to renew, he'd never let his paper go, he likes its plans and ideas so. Then after he has fed his teams, he reads of other farmers' schemes, and how they put up clover hay, and makes the cows and poultry pay.

Now I won't spend my hard-earned dough, I'd rather let my paper go, some day when I am on the street, a pleasant agent I will meet. He'll hand me out a fountain pen or pocket knife or gold watch, then he'll ask me all about the folks and tell me all the latest jokes and promise, for a stamp a week, no other knowledge should I seek, for he will send me without pay, a dozen papers every day. Then when my even chores are done, I'll read the stories, one by one, and if they ain't so very good, they'll save my wife a lot of wood.

We spend about ten times as much for chewing gum as we do for ammunition of all kinds.—Life.

FRIVOLITY

Oversight.

The check which the comely young German woman handed in at the window of a savings fund bank the other day was made payable to Gretchen H. Schmidt, and she had endorsed it simply "Gretchen Schmidt." The man at the receiving teller's window called her back to rectify the mistake just as she was turning away.

"You don't deposit this quite this way," he explained. "See, you have forgotten the H."

The young woman looked at her check and then blushed a rosy red. "Ach, so I haf," she murmured, and wrote hurriedly:

"Age twenty-three."—Ex.

No Guesswork.

One gloomy day a young countryman went to a dentist to have a tooth extracted. Seeing the patient's obvious nervousness, the dentist inquired:

"Would you like gas?"

"Would I like gas? Of course I'd like gas," exclaimed the irate patient. "Do you think I'm going to have you yanking out my teeth in the dark?"—Pathfinder.

Wise.

A scot had his leg injured at the factory and was treated for some time by the doctor without much favorable result. His mother had great faith in a local bone-setter and wanted her son to go to him, but the boy objected, preferring, he said, the regular faculty. Finally, however, he yielded to his mother's persuasions and was taken to the town where the famous bone-setter resided. The leg was duly examined and it was found necessary to pull it very severely in order to "get the bone in," as the quack expressed it. The patient howled in agony, but at last the bone was "got in" and he was bidden to go home. In a few days he would be all right and could resume work.

"Didn't he do it well?" said the joyous old lady, as they started homeward.

"Yes, he did, mother," said the lad, "he pulled it well; but I was no sic a fool as to gie him the sair leg."—New York Globe.

His Choice.

The judge looked over at the prisoner and said:

"You are privileged to challenge any member of the jury now being empaneled."

Hogan brightened. "Wlel, thin," he said, "yer Honor, Oi'll foight the shmall one wid wan eye, in de corner, there forninst ye."—Life.

Two married women were having a chat, and, as usual, the conversation veered round to the expense of living. "It's really awful how the rise in prices has affected us!" said one sadly. "Why, do you know that the bills for clothes this year are exactly double what they were last year?"

"Goodness!" gasped the other, "I don't see how your husband can afford it."

"He can't," replied the first, calmly. "But then, he couldn't afford it last year, so what's the difference?"—Argonaut.

Disgusted.

After one of the late Booker T. Washington's lectures in the South says Everybody's Magazine, a Southern gentleman, carried away by his oratory, rushed up to him, seized his hand and exclaimed:

"Washington, you're the greatest man living!"

"Oh, no!" modestly replied Washington; "there's Mr. Roosevelt."

"Aw," responded the Southerner in disgust. "I never did have any use for him after he invited you to dine with him."

A Prized Article.

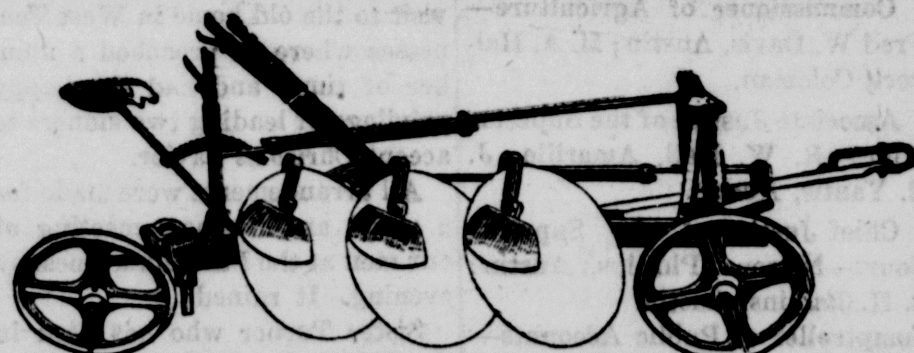

Some weeks ago we ran a short article calling attention to a parcel pots sale at Vandyke and promptly forgot about it. We were pleasantly reminded this that the sale happened when we were presented with a beautiful crochet center piece by Mrs. I. N. Freeman, who was one of the ladies who got up the sale. While the intrinsic value of the article makes us value it, the fact that it is made of hand spun threads, spun by Mrs. Freeman's mother, makes it many more times valuable. The whole center piece is artistic and represents the labor of hours. The hand that can spin thread and then work it into the artistic pieces, this is truly can and does rule the world. We sincerely thank Mrs. Freeman. It was a pleasure to do what we did without expectancy of return, but the token of appreciation gladdens us, not only with the gift, but with the sincerity of the giving.

Drug Store to Close Sunday's For Church

We have always felt that the demands for Sunday opening of Drug Stores has been too great and much of it uncalled for when real necessity was considered. Not a druggist in the town can attend Sunday School or Church, if he be so inclined, if they keep open as they are now doing, from nine a. m. until noon.

Beginning with the First Sunday in June The Hamilton Drug Co. will open their store at eight-thirty and close at nine-thirty a. m. and will re-open at four and close at five p. m. during which hours prescriptions and necessities for the sick will be given prompt attention. However, should an emergency arise we will render our services at any time. Should it not be convenient for you to call at the store at the designated hours to have your prescriptions filled, or leave your order for sick-room necessities, we have arranged a safe box at the door in which you can deposit them and at the hours above stated they will be promptly filled and delivered. We feel that the above arrangements will in no way inflict a hardship on anyone sick and will give due consideration to our employees.

At the above hours on Sunday you can get our prescription department by ringing 80, at other hours during Sunday should you want our prescription department, call Central, ask for the Hamilton Drug Company's prescription department and they will take pleasure in ringing the proper party for you. Asking your co-operation in this, we are,

Yours truly,

TEXAS

(Delivered by Ray Hoff at Commencement.)

Being a native born Texan and feeling an interest in the largest state in the union, it gives me pleasure to briefly discuss the progress and possibilities of our great state. It seems, but marvelous to contemplate the future of Texas, if we only are guided by her past development. Our growth from every standpoint has been so rapid that we must meet new conditions every quarter of a century. When we realize that our state has far outstripped other Southern states, we must attribute it to some logical cause. Our natural resources, varied climate and soil, our geographical location, and splendid citizenship—these are contributing causes to the growth of our state.

Inducements for obtaining cheaper homes early in our statehood brought thousands of the best families from other states. The population has increased 2000 per cent since 1850, and today we rank as the fifth state in population according to the thirteenth decennial census, and we rank first in the per centage of growth among the 3,000,000 population class.

We next look at the agriculture of Texas which is the greatest industry of the state. Of the 168,000,000 acres in Texas, 120,000,000 are tillable and only 30,000,000 are improved. The citizens of this state are awakening to the importance of raising the standard of farm life; to the necessity of solving the market problems; to the value of country transportation and to the great need of conserving the soil elements, improving soil fertility and increasing acre production.

The state has made a move to this end by organizing all kinds of agricultural clubs, making experiment and demonstration stations and establishing a bureau of agriculture and a number of commissions. Texas leads in the value of agriculture products by over $100,000,000 over her nearest rival. Leaving out the United States, Texas alone produces more cotton than any other country in the world and she leads by far any state in the union.

We raise such a good quality of grain that a large amount is sent north for feed. Texas has such a variety of climate that everything from grape fruit to barley, rye, and flax is raised successfully. Texas comes a close second in the production of rice; she is a leading state in horticulture; she holds first place among the states in the union in the production of cattle and mules and ranks with the leading states with the production of hogs, sheep, goats, and horses.

Texas is a state with many natural resources and enormous quantities of raw material, both mineral and vegetable, for manufacturing purposes. Not many years ago nearly all the manufactured products used in the state were imported. Today the state is producing a great variety of commodities. Notwithstanding the 45 per cent increase in manufacturing plants and the higher price of raw material, there is still more room for some more plants.

Let us now look at the mineral resources of our state. Texas produces over 25 million dollars worth of minerals a year. Practically one-half the states of the union produce less in the way of mineral wealth than Texas. Petroleum since 1902 has been the leading mineral product of this state. The state produces over $3,000,000 worth of coal each year. We have many deposits of a good grade of iron in the state. Texas stands twelfth in the list of clay producing states. The total value of clay products is nearly $3,000,000. A large amount of cement and plaster of paris is made in the state. Deposits have been found of Asphalt, molding sand, glass sand, many kinds of stones, fullers earth, mica, quicksilver, sulphur, tin, silver, copper, gold, and precious stones. Our state has produced over $2,000,000 worth of quicksilver.

Texas is making rapid progress in the building of railroads and highways and is securing improvements of rivers and harbors. Our state has over 15,000 miles of railroad lines. If the public highways of Texas could be made in one line it would compass the world at the equator nearly seven times. A number of electric lines have been constructed in the state.

In 1846 immediately after Texas joined the union, its taxable property was valued at $35,900,000. In 1912, the valuation crossed the billion mark, and since then the increase has been rapid. The valuation is now over three billion.

Under a constitutional guarantee supported by adequate and favorable laws, Texas citizens enjoy freedom of religion in belief and practice. More than thirty creeds have been established and are prospering, all working in harmony in the promotion of higher ideals and a better citizenship. Development in religious matters in the state.

In matter of church growth and schools, no southern state has made such progress. Early in the career of the state, it was realized that churches and schools, along with railroad development, were essential to our maternal progress. The public school system of Texas has made rapid strides and today our city schools of Texas rank among the best of the union. However, our country schools are not what they should be, but the $1,000,000 appropriation and closer supervision and betterment, coupled with better local taxes, will yet cause the rural schools to take the rank with our city schools.

It has been said that no country can rise above its citizens. If this is true, we have many heroes upon whom we can look back with pride and devotion. Among the South's greatest we recall, Austin, Houston, Lamar, Coke, Reagan—and others whose lustre is not bedimmed by these great lights. These men paved the way for a civilization of 4,000,000 people whose loyalty to causes espoused by her past heroes has been beyond question. Our statesmen rank high in national honor, and at present, we can boast of three of our statesmen occupying positions in the President's cabinet. Our farmers are among the most thorough and progressive; our public enterprises among the most stupendous; our growth in the literary world is of no mean proportion, Texas furnishes the national president of the Federated Clubs of the United States, and a former Comanche county woman directed for several years the affairs of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union; among the financiers we equal any in America—in fact, if the world only knew us better, Texas would be in demand for her sturdy and intelligent manhood.

In conclusion, permit me to suggest that with our varied natural resources, all that is necessary for a still greater progress is a consistent and intelligent realization of our opportunities. Let the young people of this country early realize that upon them will depend the further development of our state, and by honesty of purpose, energy, industry, and clinging fast to noble impulses this old state shall never rest until her rank shall have reached the foremost ranks in the American union.

Texas, Texas, pride of the South, How we love you, honor you, too; Lone Star, Bright Star, waving on high,

I was born and raised on Texas soil; In Texas, let me die.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take Calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great! It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.—(adv.)

COTTON BELT AGRICULTURISTS VISIT COMANCHE

On Monday a group of Cotton Belt Immigration Agents in charge of Mr. Beaty visited Comanche for the purpose of securing agricultural information regarding the agricultural industry along the route—especially Comanche.

They are preparing literature on the subject of agriculture of the sections through which their lines run to be distributed to homeseekers of the north and east.

They should certainly receive the co-operation of the Comanche citizens, for if the railroads are smart enough to invest their money in advertising in order to bring people to the section because they know it will make them more business, certainly it must be plain to our local business men that it will bring them business.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is a remedy that every family should be provided with, and especially during the summer months. Think of the pain and suffering that must be endured when medicine must be sent for or before relief can be obtained. This remedy is thoroughly reliable. Ask anyone who has used it. Bilious Attacks.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

Young Girls and Careless Parents.

Some excitement was created at the Murphy tent show Saturday night when a citizen of the city appeared on the scene with a double-barrel shotgun looking for one or more gay Lotharios, who were supposed to be connected with the show, and who were thought to be trying to entice two young girls to leave town with the theatrical force. The matter was all settled without a tragedy and it is said to have served a good purpose in the way of calling the attention of a number of parents to the fact that the streets of the city are not good places at nights for young girls without proper escorts or chaperones.—Brownwood News.

ATTENTION! WOODMEN OF THE WORLD

As clerk of Comanche Camp No.
60, W. O. W. I am receiving a free copy of "The Woodmen Journal," which is published in the city of Dallas, Texas, by one J. N.
Townsend, editor and manager;
and from what I can learn, all the clerks of the different camps of the state are also receiving a free copy each month. Now, this publication, which as the name implies, should be published in the interest and progress of our great order, a journal of fraternalism, and a booster for Woodcraft in Texas and the great Southwest, but instead, its editor is devoting its pages to besmearing the name of our esteemed Sov. Commander Fraser, to whom we owe more than any one else the splendid progress the order has made,
not only in Texas, but in the entire Sovereign Jurisdiction, and through whose efforts and untiring devotion the order has been placed upon a solid financial basis in the realms of fraternal insurance. Nor does he stop with his abuse of our Sov. Commander Fraser, but he further vents his spleen upon our efficient State Manager, R. H. Mc-Dill, who is Head Consul of the jurisdiction of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona; nor does he stop here but takes the Sovereign Visitor, the official organ of the greatest fraternal beneficiary society on earth to a cleaning and calls it the "Slobbering Visitor," etc., and we might say he calls in question the integrity and sincerity of every member of the Sovereign camp, who for the past eight years have stood shoulder to shoulder and worked faithfully for the continued prosperity of our splendid society, looking ever to the one essential end—the protection of the home. Yes, this young editor who has been a member of the W.
O. W. only about 18 months now knows much more about the conditions of the order than the members who for the past 25 years have seen it grow from a tiny twig

Tax Assessor

And will continue until after the polls close Saturday, July 22, 1916, and with the assistance of his many friends throughout the county, he expects to win.

REMEMBER that he is not running as a SPECIAL CANDIDATE for any FAVORED LOCALITY, but as the candidate for Comanche County as a whole. He promises, if elected, to render efficient service 12 months out of each year, will employ only experienced and efficient deputies, and if elected for two terms, will step down and out at the end of his "SECOND TERM."

Remember, too, that he has to defeat ten other good men, all who are anxious to serve you as your next TAX ASSESSOR.

POSITIVE PROOF

Should convince the greatest skeptic in Comanche.

Because it's the evidence of a Comanche citizen. Testimony easily investigated. The strongest endorsement of merit.

The best proof. Read it: G. S. Walker, retired farmer, Comanche, says: "Sometimes my kidneys are too active, and then again, they do not act often enough. My back also pains me occasionally. I use Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at M. W. Carroll's Drug Store, at such times and they never fail to regulate the action of my kidneys and ease my back. I keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand all the time and use them as needed."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Walker had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

J. B. Weems, who is stationed at Sweetwater as Live Stock Inspector, was here this week to see his family who reside some few miles southwest of town.

HAVE YOU EGGS FOR SALE?

Realizing that the average farmer did not get a fair price for his eggs there was recently organized in the city of Dallas, a marketing committee, under the supervision of the Extension Department of A. & M., the purpose of which is to see that so far as possible the people who are producing good eggs get a fair price for them. The third day we were out we sold more eggs than we could secure, in fact cannot supply the demand at the present time. If such readers of this paper as are producing eggs will take the males away from the hens, gather their eggs twice a day and keep them in a cool place, we believe we can get five cents above their home market. If those interested will write me, stating how many eggs they can ship, I will advise them whether we can get more.

A BEAUTIFUL COLOR

Why use a black, nasty, bad smelling disinfectant when you can get Ross' "Dead Quick" Spray? It is delightfully clean, and will positively kill all insects and germs the moment applied. Use it in your home, on your vegetables and on your stock.

Strange Lights Worry J. H. Stinson.

J. H. Stinson, who lives south of Stephenville, is worried over strange lights which he saw hovering over Stephenville Thursday and Friday nights, May 18 and 19, during the early hours of the evening. They resembled a great fan moving slowly to and fro, and illuminated the clouds above.

His son and others witnessed the strange phenomenon also, and they want someone to explain the cause as they were unusual and never occurred before. It may be that Pat Pittman and Mack Tayler were practicing on some of their big speeches on top of the Tribune building, and the scintillations therefrom may have illuminated the heavens above, and the reflected light from the clouds may have been seen by Mr. Stinson.—Stephenville Tribune.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarhal deafness. Half's Catarhal Cure cures this inflammation of the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Half's Catarhal Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

A New Idea.

S. V. Seale, who runs a local peanut roaster, has put on a new idea in the peanut line. He makes home salted peanuts which are in flavor far superior to the commercial kind and being made up in small lots are always fresh. The editor is the best judge of roasted peanuts and pop corn in the city, for as a person might judge from appearance, he is possibly the city's largest individual consumer, and it is his judgment that the salted peanuts made by Mr. Seale are superior in flavor and richness to any he has ever tasted. Mr. Seale deserves credit for his original idea of fresh, home salted peanuts.

The Optimistic View.

There is a law of compensation that sooner or later gets around to repay the losses sustained in the direct calamities. Verdun has been the scene of the world's longest and bloodiest battle, but just think what corner lots will be worth in Verdun when the war is over. Any tourist will be glad to pay ten dollars for a rock from Dead Man's Hill or a piece of shrapnel from fort 304.—Honey Grove Signal.

What Would We Do Without Sugar?

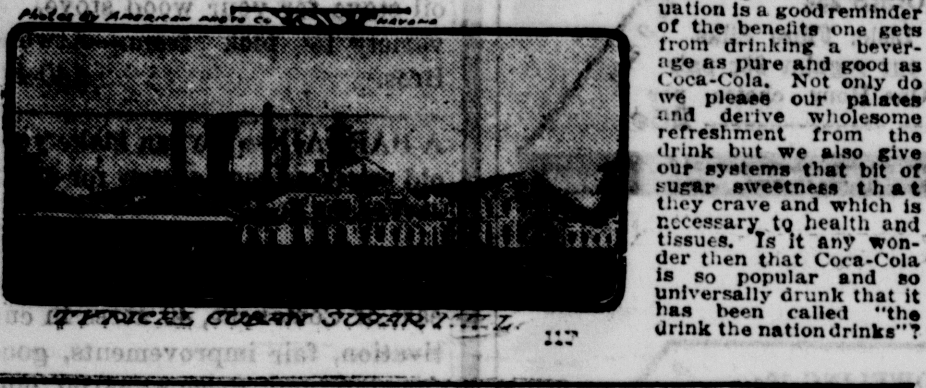

GATHERING SUGAR CANE

We are so used to sugar that we are likely to forget to give it its proper place. Right now, if somebody asked you what sugar was good for, you'd probably say—"Oh! to put in coffee and tea and for making candies and desserts." That's it—we all think of sugar as a sweetener and overlook its value as a food.

The chemists classify sugar as a hydrocarbon—that name may or may not be interesting to us, but what is interesting is their statement that it has, as a hydrocarbon, equal food value with the starchy foods and by digestion largely adds to the fatty tissues of the body.

Why do we eat sugar anyway? Your first answer might be: "Because it is sweet and tastes good." Of itself the answer would be correct, but the more important fact is that the body craves sugar because it needs it. And when the body craves something it gives us an appetite for it. So primarily that's why we like sugar and things made with sugar and not just because they are sweet.

In view of the fact that sugar has gone up so tremendously of late these facts

HAMILTON VS. COMANCHE AT HAMILTON, MAY 31ST

The game between Hamilton and Comanche at Hamilton Wednesday was such a game as fans love to see. The pitching was good, though not very brilliant but the hitting, fielding and baserunning were sensational. Lewis caught two line drives which other wise would have gone for hits, while Main made a shoestring catch of Gray's short drive to left field, which was a beauty; and Hickey caught two hard ones in center. Carnes for Comanche went back and nailed Meadows' long drive which sure looked like it was good for two bases.

One of the prettiest and fastest plays of the game came in the seventh inning, when Arther sent one through the left field fence and was held on second by Main's fast fielding, and Main's and Hickey's perfect relay of the ball to Scott; when the ball hit the ground it looked good for a home run, and only the greatest kind of fielding held Arther back.

The hitting wonders of the day were Arther for Comanche and Lewis for Hamilton. Arther, out of five times at bat, got four hits, and was only robbed of the fifth by Emmett's pretty catch, and one of the four a double. Lewis, out of four times up, got a triple and a home run, and was robbed of another extra base hit by M. Woodward's catch in the fifth. But then Lewis doesn't consider he has any right to stop at first on a hit, while second is only a flag stop. Thodberg for Comanche lined out a triple to the trees back of right field while Arther, D. Woodward, and C. Woodward, each connected with the pill for a double. On Hamilton's side, besides Lewis' two long ones, Cleveland and Harrison each drove one far enough to give them the keystone sack.

All the base thieves were on the Hamilton team, the boss thief, King Hickey, who stole second twice and third once; Cleveland, running for Harrison in the eighth stole third, while Main stole second in the fourth. Lewis' pegging to first and Harrison's whip kept Comanche from doing any pilfering.

The Game by Innings.

Comanche—Gray out, Lewis to second, Thodberg safe on Cleveland's error, Arther singled sending Thodberg to second, Thodberg tried a delayed steal and was out, Harrison to Scott to Emmett to Scott to Emmett, but Arther failed to take advantage of the play and stayed at first, Carnes flied out to Meadows. No runs, one hit one error.

HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:—

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

How About Having a Toe Cut Off?

Would you have your toe cut off because it had a corn on it? Certainly not. You would have the corn treated.

Then why have a tooth out because it is decayed or aches? Your teeth were intended to last as long as your fingers and toes. They will if you will take the proper care of them, and they are just as important, from the standpoint of good, as your fingers and toes.

Call on a dentist that guarantees to give you satisfactory services.
